Elder Law

The population of the State is aging. Laws and regulations affecting the elderly and their families are increasingly complex. In light of these trends, Norman Hanson DeTroy offers a range of services to assist its clients who are senior citizens or who are the adult relatives of senior citizens, including

- Preparing financial and health care powers of attorney
- Drafting wills and trusts
- Advising about tax and other implications of gifting assets to family members
- Protecting assets when your spouse is about to enter long term care
- Working to qualify you for MaineCare (Medicaid)
- Filing petitions for appointment as guardian or conservator, and
- Arranging house calls for homebound, nursing home-bound, and hospital-bound clients
