Successfully navigating complex issues of insurance coverage requires a sophisticated approach devised by highly experienced attorneys. We at Norman Hanson DeTroy are widely recognized as the leading authorities in the area of insurance coverage law in Maine. Our seasoned, highly-skilled trial attorneys are well-versed in insurance litigation issues and have helped develop much of Maine's significant insurance case law for over 30 years.

Our coverage team dedicates its time to insurance law and brings a depth and quality of experience that simply is unmatched by any other firm. We provide strategic coverage advice to resolve claims when they first are presented; we litigate coverage claims in both state and federal courts and in arbitrations and mediations; and we pursue appeals in matters that set new precedent for insurance coverage law.

Our clients appreciate the pitfalls presented by coverage decisions and trust us to craft thoughtful and effective approaches to their insurance coverage problems. Allow us to put our unique understanding of insurance coverage law to work for you.
