David Goldman has a wide ranging litigation practice, representing clients involved in a broad variety of complex civil litigation, including real estate and business disputes, as well as administrative appeals of municipal and state agency decisions. David also has a particular focus on appellate practice, with significant experience representing clients before the Maine Supreme Judicial Court and before Federal Courts of Appeal.

Prior to graduation magna cum laude from the University of Maine School of Law, David was selected for an internship with Judge Lipez of the First Circuit Court of Appeals, and after graduation served as Law Clerk for the Superior Court with Chief Justice Humphrey and Justices Crowley and Warren. His next clerkship placed David as the first Law Clerk for the newly formed Maine Business Court with Chief Justice Humphrey and Justice Nivison.
