Elizabeth Brogan has rejoined Norman, Hanson & DeTroy. She initially joined the firm in 1987, as a member of the Workers' Compensation practice group, becoming a partner in 1995.

Since leaving the firm in 1997, Ms. Brogan served as editor of a community newspaper, where she indulged her love of writing and interest in local government, and served as a claims consultant to the Workers' Compensation Supplemental Benefit Fund. In June, 2016 she became Executive Director of both the Workers' Compensation Coordinating Council and Maine Council of Self-Insurers, as well as Administrator of the Maine Self-Insurance Guarantee Association. Elizabeth also serves as a member of the Maine WCB Workers' Compensation Rules Taskforce.

Elizabeth is working with the Governmental Relations and Workers' Compensation practice groups at Norman, Hanson & DeTroy, representing the interests of the employer and self-insured employer community before the Maine Legislature
