Mike practices primarily in the areas of insurance coverage, landlord/tenant matters, real estate litigation, and commercial litigation. He assists clients in resolving title defects and disputes, including litigation relating to boundary lines and rights-of-way. Mike also has experience representing creditors and lenders in disputes relating to loan transactions and debt collection.

Prior to joining Norman, Hanson & DeTroy, Mike served as a law clerk in Maine's trial courts and practiced for several years at another Portland firm. During law school, he was an editor of the Ocean and Coastal Law Journal and was a recipient of the pro bono publico award.
